INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	While on foot patrol of Bioinformatics, an officer observed two individuals in the common area. The officer observed a door being held open by a doorstop and the odor of marijuana coming from both individuals. Both individuals gave the officer their ID, and he was able to verify they had no affiliation with the University. The officer asked them if they had any weapons or drugs on them. The first individual advised he had something in his pocket, but it was legal. The second individual took off running towards Grigg Hall. The officer searched the first individual and located a firearm in his pants pocket along with two loaded magazines. The individual was arrested for felony possession of a firearm on educational property and misdemeanor concealing a firearm. He was transported to Mecklenburg County Jail. Officers conducted a search of the surrounding area for the second individual, but he was not located. After a check on the second individual's name, it was determined he had an active trespass order from the University. The officer will be attempting to obtain a warrant for second-degree trespass. A Maxient was completed, along with an incident report and arrest report.

CAD/2024001820 N	Follow Up	PPS Lobby	02/24/2024 2127hrs	N/A	N/A	Cleared/Closed
