INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	Dispatch received a call from Counseling and Psychological Services advising that they had reason to believe a non-resident student may be having suicidal ideations. Officers located the student at his residence in the Hilton hotel and were given consent to enter the room. The student advised he was not having thoughts of hurting himself and officers did not observe any signs of self-mutilation. Officers advised the student of campus resources. A Care and Concern Maxient report was completed.
CAD/2023006850	Suspicious Person	Duke	09-11-2023 1933hrs	N/A	N/A	Report Taken
INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	A caller called dispatch to report an individual not wearing a shirt was banging on the door at Duke. Officers went to the scene and found a former student who said he had taken ecstasy and was trying to get in the building. The individual also admitted to drinking while Officers awaited Medic to arrive. Medic arrived and transported the individual to Atrium University hospital for further care. The individual was trespassed and was explained how to get his vehicle off campus. A SIM report was completed because of the language the individual was using towards the Officers. There were no signs of damage caused by this individual.
