INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	A resident student parked her Nissan Rogue with a temporary tag in front of Hickory Hall while she went to her dorm room. Another resident student was able to start the vehicle because of the proximity of the key fob and drove off with the vehicle. Officers that were working the east area came across the vehicle in the Mary Alexander Circle heading back towards Hickory. The vehicle parked back at Hickory and Officers pulled in behind the vehicle. Officers questioned the driver who first stated the vehicle was his but later admitted to taking the vehicle. Nothing was missing from the vehicle and the driver was arrested for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle since he returned the vehicle to the location of where he took it. The owner of the vehicle had her car back and was told to park the vehicle in a lot and secure it. An incident report was created as well as a referral to the Dean of Student's Office. The resident student received a $2,500 secured bond. The REC was notified.
